UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

NO. 3:18-CR-232-K

DETONTE SPEARMAN (17)
AKA PAPA

PLEA AGREEMENT

Detonte Spearman, the defendant, Ezekiel Tyson, the defendant's attorney, and the United States of America (the government), agree as follows:

1. Rights of the defendant: The defendant understands that the defendant has the rights:
  - a. to plead not guilty;
  - b. to have a trial by jury;
  - c. to have the defendant's guilt proven beyond a reasonable doubt;
  - d. to confront and cross-examine witnesses and to call witnesses in the defendant's defense; and
  - e. against compelled self-incrimination.

2. Waiver of rights and plea of guilty: The defendant waives these rights and pleads guilty to the offense alleged in Count 18 of the Indictment, charging a violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 846 [841(a)(1) and (b)(1)(B)], that is, Conspiracy to Possess with Intent to Distribute a Controlled Substance. The defendant understands the nature and elements of the crime to which the defendant is pleading guilty, and agrees that the factual resume the defendant has signed is true and will be submitted as evidence.

3. Sentence: The minimum and maximum penalties the Court can impose include:

- a. imprisonment for a period not less than 5 years, and not to exceed 40 years;
- b. a fine not to exceed $5,000,000, or twice any pecuniary gain to the defendant or loss to the victim(s);
- c. a term of supervised release of at least four years up to life, which is mandatory under the law and will follow any term of imprisonment. If the defendant violates the conditions of supervised release, he could be imprisoned for the entire term of supervised release;
- d. a mandatory special assessment of $100;
- e. restitution to victims or to the community, which is mandatory under the law, and which the defendant agrees may include restitution arising from all relevant conduct, not limited to that arising from the offense of conviction alone;
- f. costs of incarceration and supervision;
- g. forfeiture of property; and,
- h. upon conviction of an offense involving distribution of a controlled substance, the defendant is, in the discretion of the Court, subject to denial of any or all "federal benefits" as defined in 21 U.S.C. § 862(d), for a period of up to five years.

4. Immigration consequences: The defendant recognizes that pleading guilty may have consequences with respect to the defendant's immigration status if the defendant is not a citizen of the United States. Under federal law, a broad range of crimes are removable offenses. The defendant understands this may include the offense to which the defendant is pleading guilty, and for purposes of this plea agreement, the defendant assumes the offense is a removable offense. Removal and other immigration consequences are the subject of a separate proceeding, however, and the defendant understands that no one, including the defendant's attorney or the district court, can predict to a certainty the effect of the defendant's conviction on the defendant's immigration status. The defendant nevertheless affirms that the defendant wants to plead guilty regardless of any immigration consequences that the defendant's plea of guilty may entail, even if the consequence is the defendant's automatic removal from the United States.

5. Court's sentencing discretion and role of the Guidelines: The defendant understands that the sentence in this case will be imposed by the Court after consideration of the United States Sentencing Guidelines. The guidelines are not binding on the Court, but are advisory only. The defendant has reviewed the guidelines with the defendant's attorney, but understands no one can predict with certainty the outcome of the Court's consideration of the guidelines in this case. The defendant will not be allowed to withdraw the defendant's plea if the defendant's sentence is higher than expected. The defendant fully understands that the actual sentence imposed (so long as it is within the statutory maximum) is solely in the discretion of the Court.

6. Mandatory special assessment: The defendant agrees to pay to the U.S. District Clerk the amount of $100, in satisfaction of the mandatory special assessment in this case.

7. Defendant's agreement: The defendant shall give complete and truthful information and/or testimony concerning the defendant's participation in the offense of conviction. Upon demand, the defendant shall submit a personal financial statement under oath and submit to interviews by the government and the U.S. Probation Office regarding the defendant's capacity to satisfy any fines or restitution. The defendant expressly authorizes the United States Attorney's Office to immediately obtain a credit report on the defendant in order to evaluate the defendant's ability to satisfy any financial obligation imposed by the Court. The defendant fully understands that any financial obligation imposed by the Court, including a restitution order and/or the implementation of a fine, is due and payable immediately. In the event the Court imposes a schedule for payment of restitution, the defendant agrees that such a schedule represents a minimum payment obligation and does not preclude the U.S. Attorney's Office from pursuing any other means by which to satisfy the defendant's full and immediately enforceable financial obligation. The defendant understands that the defendant has a continuing obligation to pay in full as soon as possible any financial obligation imposed by the Court. The defendant agrees to withdraw his Notice of Appeal, Dkt. 366, filed in this case, within seven (7) days of executing this agreement. He also agrees not to oppose any government motion to dismiss the pending appellate action in United States v. Spearman, No. 19-10142 (5th Cir. 2019).

8. Release of Property Seized: Spearman acknowledges that DEA had probable cause to seize two vehicles: a 2015 Cadillac Escalade VIN 1GYSMKJ1FR537529 and a 2015 Chevrolet Impala VIN 1G11Z5SL9FU146325. In exchange for not forfeiting the vehicles, Spearman agrees to reimburse all costs the government incurred seizing, towing, and storing the vehicle. Upon reimbursement, the government agrees to release the vehicles to Spearman or his agent within 30 days.

Spearman releases, holds harmless, and forever discharges the government from any and all actions, claims, and/or demands whatsoever in law or equity which Spearman ever had, now have, or may have in the future, in connection with the vehicles.

9. Government's agreement: The government will not bring any additional charges against the defendant based upon the conduct underlying and related to the defendant's plea of guilty. The government will file a Supplement in this case, as is routinely done in every case, even though there may or may not be any additional terms. The government will dismiss, after sentencing, any remaining charges in the pending Indictment or other already filed charging documents in this case. This agreement is limited to the United States Attorney's Office for the Northern District of Texas and does not bind any other federal, state, or local prosecuting authorities, nor does it prohibit any civil or administrative proceeding against the defendant or any property.

10. Violation of agreement: The defendant understands that if the defendant violates any provision of this agreement, or if the defendant's guilty plea is vacated or withdrawn, the government will be free from any obligations of the agreement and free to prosecute the defendant for all offenses of which it has knowledge. In such event, the defendant waives any objections based upon delay in prosecution. If the plea is vacated or withdrawn for any reason other than a finding that it was involuntary, the defendant also waives objection to the use against the defendant of any information or statements the defendant has provided to the government, and any resulting leads.

11. Voluntary plea: This plea of guilty is freely and voluntarily made and is not the result of force or threats, or of promises apart from those set forth in this plea agreement. There have been no guarantees or promises from anyone as to what sentence the Court will impose.

12. Waiver of right to appeal or otherwise challenge sentence: The defendant waives the defendant's rights, conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1291 and 18 U.S.C. § 3742, to appeal the conviction, sentence, fine and order of restitution or forfeiture in an amount to be determined by the district court. The defendant further waives the defendant's right to contest the conviction, sentence, fine and order of restitution or forfeiture in any collateral proceeding, including proceedings under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 and 28 U.S.C. § 2255. The defendant, however, reserves the rights (a) to bring a direct appeal of (i) a sentence exceeding the statutory maximum punishment, or (ii) an arithmetic error at sentencing, (b) to challenge the voluntariness of the defendant's plea of guilty or this waiver, and (c) to bring a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel.

13. Representation of counsel: The defendant has thoroughly reviewed all legal and factual aspects of this case with the defendant's lawyer and is fully satisfied with that lawyer's legal representation. The defendant has received from the defendant's lawyer explanations satisfactory to the defendant concerning each paragraph of this plea agreement, each of the defendant's rights affected by this agreement, and the alternatives available to the defendant other than entering into this agreement. Because the defendant concedes that the defendant is guilty, and after conferring with the defendant's lawyer, the defendant has concluded that it is in the defendant's best interest to enter into this plea agreement and all its terms, rather than to proceed to trial in this case

14. Entirety of agreement: This document is a complete statement of the parties' agreement and may not be modified unless the modification is in writing and signed by all parties. This agreement supersedes any and all other promises, representations, understanding, and agreements that are or were made between the parties at any time before the guilty plea is entered in court. No promises or representations have been made by the United States except as set forth in writing in this plea agreement.

AGREED TO AND SIGNED this 10 day of SEPTEMBER 2019.
